John Wooden.

Don't let what you can't do
stop you from doing
what you can do.

If I'm too busy
to count my blessings,
I'm just plain too busy.

What you do today is important because you are exchanging a day of your life for it.

*Either you run the day
or the day runs you.*

Jim Rohn

It is not happy people
who are thankful,
it is thankful people
who are happy.

*Never get so busy making a living
that you forget to make a life.*

We shall never know all the good that a simple smile can do.

Mother Teresa

You are the only you
in existence.
The world needs
your gifts,
your story,
your passion.
The world needs you!

A black and white line drawing of a garden scene. The background is filled with various elements: several butterflies of different sizes and patterns, some with large circular spots on their wings; various leaves, some with veins and some with circular patterns; small flowers and buds; and numerous small circles and dots scattered throughout. The overall style is whimsical and detailed, suitable for a coloring page.

How you make others feel about themselves says a lot about you.

If you want to live an amazingly fulfilling life, you must live for something bigger than yourself.
