What does God want us to do together that we can't do apart?

Billions of people have never had an opportunity to see, hear, and respond to the gospel of Jesus Christ. Others have heard about Jesus, but have not yet responded. When Jesus completed his earthly ministry, he entrusted his followers with his mission. This mission should be greater than anything that has divided his church in the past.

40 Days of Love is a devotional to help Christians pray for, care for, and share the gospel of Jesus Christ with at least ten people in their sphere of influence over forty days—in a way that is beyond the norm. Each day's devotion focuses on how you can experience God's love and then express it in practical ways to those around you.

Be a part of this movement to bring the transforming life of Jesus into every community, every ethnicity, and every generation.

This is for the people who are drowning in the pain of addiction.

You can be free and create a new way of life to change your life and legacy.

It's a unique story that hasn't been told. There have been some, though not many, books written and stories told about women leaving the porn industry and the pain it has caused. Not many men (if any) have been telling this story. The porn industry gave Keith everything he thought he wanted, but his choice to walk away from it is powerful and unique.

Just Breathe is divided into six chapters, each using a portion of Keith's story, as well as a letter from the acronym BREATHE to take people on a journey from addiction to freedom.

- B-Blessed are the Broken
- R-Ready to Surrender
- E-Evaluate my Life with Fearless Honesty
- A-Make Amends
- TH-Think a Whole New Way
- E-Encourage Others with My Life and Story
- Resource guide in appendix with list of books and resources for further research and practical help.

We are never finished with the process and journey of growth, and the best way to keep what we have is to give it away.

TRANSLATION

God saves the best for last.

Of all the sixty-six books that comprise our Bible, the last book is meant to thrill and exhilarate the believer like none other. A beautiful Christ is unveiled while a company of overcoming saints is seen rising into the fullness of Christ. The book of Revelation is exciting, powerful, dynamic, and more than meets the eye. It must be more to us than merely an unveiling of events to come, but an experience of encountering Christ.

God is ready to unveil this book to those in this generation who are ready to receive it, eat it, and live fully in the splendor of Christ. The Unveiling is more than a vision given to John but it is meant to be an inward discovery, a delightful unveiling within you. This is not a drama of Satan's worst, but a supernatural drama of God's best, pouring through his beautiful Son, Jesus Christ.

It carries one revelation alone – Christ unveiled in his people. To read this book with any other focus is to miss the entire center of its meaning. There are other truths waiting for you to discover, but only after centering our gaze on this One, our Magnificent Obsession.

Prayer leads to better care

There's an occupational hazard for pastors: Someone always needs them. There are always church members who need care, counsel, wisdom, and direction. And at the same time, there will always be people outside the church who need the gospel. Those demands and needs create unique pressures for every pastor.

A pastor who says yes to all of the ministry needs often says no to a spouse and kids. When pastors have a personal crisis, many pastors may feel alone in their struggles and have few people to turn to for true support.

How can you support your pastor? 31 Days of Prayer for Your Pastor provides inspiration and insight into what it means to be a pastor, along with Scriptures, prayers, and promises to declare over your pastor.

God has given you your pastor for a purpose. Support this spiritual leader through prayer and see your life be blessed.
