The Middle School Rules of Thomas Morstead
As told by Sean Jensen

“Before he earned a Super Bowl ring and started a foundation, he had to survive middle school.”

Thomas Morstead entered his 12th NFL season with the New Orleans Saints, distinguishing himself as one of the league’s top punters. In Super Bowl XLIV, he executed an onside kick that the Saints recovered and parlayed into a touchdown to take a 13-10 lead. The Saints defeated the Indianapolis Colts to win the Super Bowl. In 2014, Thomas and his wife Lauren started What You Give Will Grow, a foundation committed to improving the lives of those in need, with a strong focus on children and cancer initiatives, in New Orleans and the Gulf South communities.

The Middle School Rules of Thomas Morstead shares how Thomas learned about his cultural roots, handled being bullied for his appearance, and dealt with the disappointment of not making the high school varsity soccer team. Inspired by many, including his parents, Thomas pushes himself in every area of his life and boldly chases his dreams.

SEAN JENSEN was born in South Korea. He was adopted and grew up in California, Massachusetts, and Virginia, mostly on or near military bases. Given his unique background, he’s always been drawn to storytelling, a skill he developed at Northwestern University and crafted as a sportswriter for the last 16 years, almost exclusively covering the NFL. During his career, he’s fostered strong relationships with athletes in multiple sports and penned award-winning features on Derrick Rose and Jared Allen, among others. Sean and his wife make their home in Hopkins, MN.

Bible Story Books by Paul & Delores Gully

These well known Bible stories are told in a fun rhyming format, bringing new perspective to age-old lessons. The stories teach the importance of obeying God and living according to his Word.

PAUL and DELORES GULLY currently reside near the Twin Lakes of DeFuniak Springs in Florida. They met while attending Ringling College of Art and Design where Delores mistook Paul for one of his identical triplet brothers, who was in her class. Their God-given talent has been utilized to illustrate books and curriculum worldwide. Their passion is to help children understand how much God loves them. They enjoy traveling, hiking, fishing, reading, bicycling, and watching action movies. Connect with the Gullys at PaulGullyIllustrator.com and Facebook.com/pvggraphicsanddesign.

Ruby the Foster Dog
Jimmy Wayne

Be a star that shines for others.

Abandoned in an animal shelter, Ruby, an adorable mixed breed puppy with an underbite, wonders if a family will ever adopt her. When a goofy looking, scruffy-faced man stops by the shelter, he adopts Ruby. Mr. James is not the family she was expecting—but could he still be the answer to her prayers?

Mr. James (known as Jimmy Wayne to his country music fans) is walking halfway across America to raise awareness for the thousands of foster children who desperately need our help. Ruby realizes that she's not so very different from these kids: she's scared and alone. If she doesn't have help, she can't have hope either. But Mr. James wants to change all that, for her and for every foster kid in the United States.

On their adventure together, Mr. James teaches her about integrity, honesty, loyalty, faith, forgiveness, and trust, but mostly how love can rescue someone and forever change lives. As they walk along historic routes and locations throughout the Southeastern United States, Ruby quietly helps Mr. James overcome the issues he's been struggling with too. By the time they get to Phoenix, both of their lives are changed for the better. But just when Ruby accepts Mr. James as her new family, an unexpected phone call challenges her to redefine family—and love—all over again.

Ruby the Foster Dog will leave readers with a full heart, a desire to help foster dogs (and foster kids) find homes and forever families, and motivation to be a star that shines for others. Ruby's story parallels the plight of the more than 400,000 children in foster care, the 30,000 who age-out annually at 18 years-young, and the 100,000+ children waiting to be adopted. ABOUT THE AUTHOR

JIMMY WAYNE is a former foster kid turned country music singer/songwriter whose songs, story, and walk halfway across America in 2010 continue to help bring awareness of kids who age out of the foster system and become homeless. He is the author of Walk to Beautiful, his (three-time) New York Times best-selling memoir, and lives in Nashville, Tennessee.
Farmer Herman and the Flooding Barn is a truly unique children's book with a big heart. Based on a true story, this beautiful and whimsical book explores Farmer Herman's quest to solve a VERY big problem. After considering a few silly ideas of how to take care of his flooding barn, Farmer Herman comes up with maybe the silliest idea of all—find 344 friends to come help pick it up and move it!

This inspiring story from Bruno, Nebraska has been told around the world demonstrating the power of solving big problems together. One group of people who were inspired by the Bruno barn-moving story were a group of advocates around the country who are working together to provide more than enough for kids and families in foster care.

As a way to raise awareness for children in foster care, 344 of these passionate people wrote and illustrated this book together. Kids, adoptive and foster parents, child welfare professionals, pastors, organizational leaders, recording artists, and authors have all contributed original drawings that have been used to illustrate the entire book. Illustrators include Jars of Clay, Andrew Peterson, Dennis and Barbara Rainey, Dr. Karyn Purvis, John Luke Robertson (Duck Dynasty) and many others.

Farmer Herman and the Flooding Barn is a fun story about the power of unity brought into existence by 344 people who are counting on the power of unity to bring hope to 400,000 kids in foster care.

JASON WEBER is passionate about helping people solve big problems by working together. He and his wife Trisha moved into an inner city neighborhood right after college. Many of the kids they encountered in their neighborhood had experienced foster care at some point in their lives. Partially as a result of this experience, Jason and Trisha became foster parents and have been caring for and adopting children from U.S. foster care since 2001. They have had the privilege of adopting their five children from foster care. Jason has helped to produce and write several books, bible studies, and other tools all created to serve the Church as it cares for hurting kids. Jason serves as the National Director of Foster Care Initiatives for the Christian Alliance for Orphans and currently lives in Plano, Texas.
Adventures of a Kid Magician
from the Magical Life of Justin Flom

Adventures of a Kid Magician is Zach's private journal, detailing how magic gets Zach both into and out of trouble as he learns life lessons!

Along with Zach's thrilling stories and eye-catching sketches, each adventure comes with a secret magic code that will take you to an exclusive online video of the actual magic tricks used in the adventure! You too will experience the excitement of fooling and impressing your friends with top magician Justin Flom’s creative instruction.

About Justin Flom:
Justin's path to crafting his own unique brand of magic has taken a circuitous route from his home town of Eden Prairie, Minnesota to Branson, Missouri, to the SyFy Channel, to some of the largest arenas in the country, to being one of the first magicians to focus on social media on his way to becoming one of America’s most sought-after magicians – surpassing entertaining 100,000,000 fans in 2015. What sets Justin Flom apart from most other magicians is the simplicity of his magic and the fact that he cracked the code on doing close-up magic on giant stages. He holds the distinction of being the first magician ever to perform card tricks for a sold out crowd at the fabled Madison Square Garden.

Scott Flom is magic. Not because he’s a magician, but because he’s found time to nurture his passion for magic all while being a successful salesman, entrepreneur, husband, and father. He is still sharing life lessons through magic and building it into his home. He says his life has been an amazing magical adventure.

Judy Flom Hill is the proud aunt and godmother of Justin. She is the author of two suspense novels. Collaborating with her brother and nephew is a wonderful literary joyride.

Drew Flom is an illustrator, designer, and art director who specializes in children’s books, comics, graphic novels, illustrative logo design, and caricature. He has been published in over a dozen books and featured in Venture Beat and The Washington Post.
